Stand Up And Take Notice

A Place

With Class

For the past few years, we had been hearing how the great pride and spirit of W.H.S. was dwindling and how the students were not backing the school like they did before.

But it was time for the people who were saying these things to "Stand Up and Take Notice" that we, the students at W.H.S., were alive and were taking pride in the school and made it a place that stood above the rest.

The students joined together, regardless of backgrounds, to restore the spirit that many believed was gone. Because of our determination and our respect for W.H.S., the students were indeed making W.H.S. a "Place With Class".

Summer Means — “Freedom”

The last exam had been taken, the final opening and shutting of lockers was done, and that last walk down the hall, glancing around, recalling the memories of the year that had just gone by was over. You walked to the door and opened it, and took one step out. School was over, and the lazy days of summer had begun.

Summer was a time for “Freedom”. Waking up became easier because ten or eleven o’clock seemed more reasonable than six or six-thirty. It was time to hit the sandy beaches and catch some “rays”. No more setting in classrooms all day and going by a certain schedule. Summer was a time to relax and just take things as they came.

Sitting back and watching “soaps” seemed to be what most of the kids liked to do. Another activity was being able to stay out late on weekdays because there was no school the next day. Everything seemed to be running smoothly, but before you knew it you were back to waking up at six o’clock and walking into that same school you were so happy to leave last June.

Like they say, “All good things must come to an end”, but the memories of the past will remain with us.

Back To Hitting The Books

When Labor Day passed every year, kids around the city of South Bend put their summer activities behind them and got ready for school. This past year was no exception. With the intergration plan in its' second year, things took shape.

For the students, it was time to get back into the routine of doing homework and studying. The finishing touches were being made on shopping for school clothes and for school supplies. It seemed like all that was left to do was to take that long walk or drive back to school. At the beginning it seemed to be boring, but once students returned to old friends from the past and new friends from the present, everything began to fall into place, and school days seemed to fly by.

The Place To Be . . . South Bend?

Through the years many people have asked themselves, "What is there to do in South Bend"? Because of the new buildings around the River City, that question could now be answered.

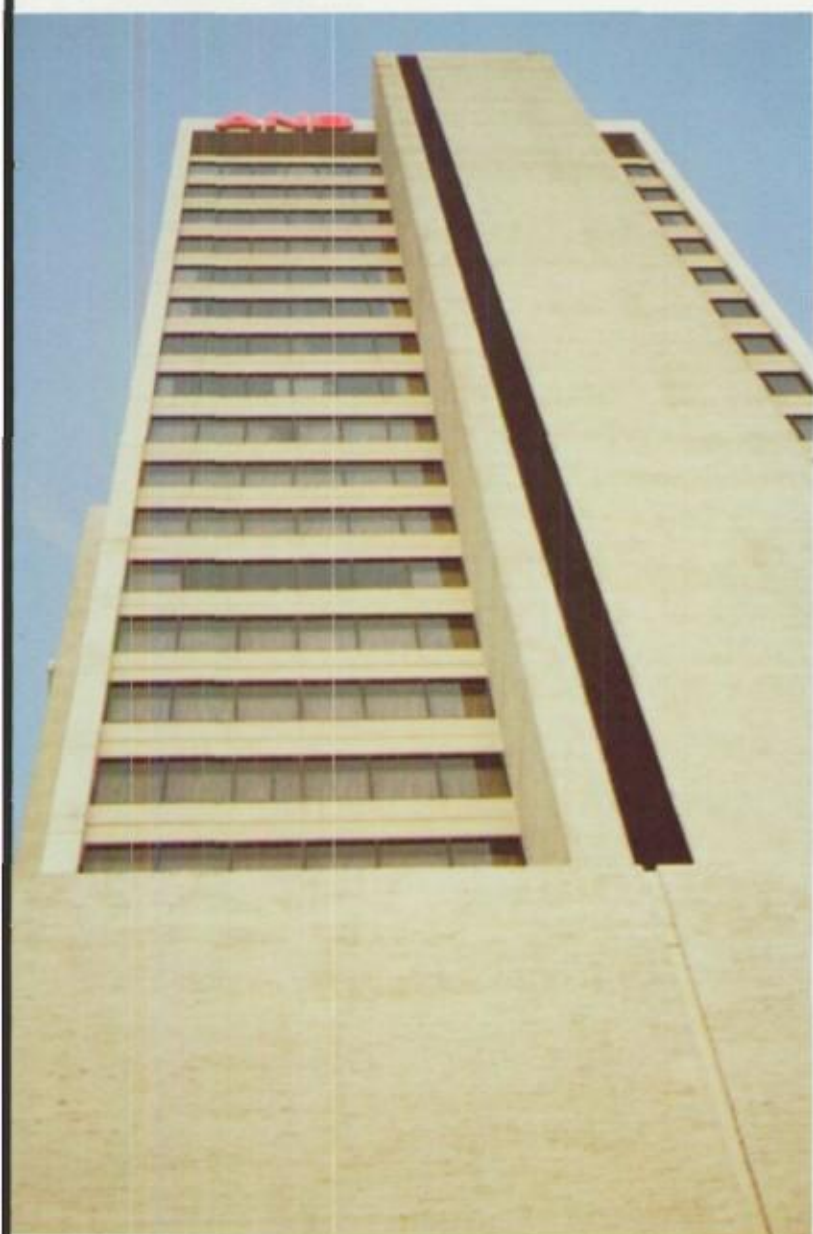

With the construction of the Century Center and the Marriotte Hotel, one could see plays, musicals, lectures, and exhibits. These special programs gave the people of South Bend and our visitors an opportunity to just relax and take it easy.

The University of Notre Dame contributed to our economy and the social lives of some making South Bend, "the place to be."

Stand Up For The Panthers

With the clear view of how things were run by W.H.S. administrators, students appreciated getting an education and W.H.S. in general. They started to believe in their school and realized how important it was to have pride in your school.

Students again began to "Stand Up for the Panthers" by cheering for their team and by showing them how much they were behind them.

The Seniors and Juniors showed the underclassmen just what spirit meant and how much more effort could be shown once they knew that people were backing them.

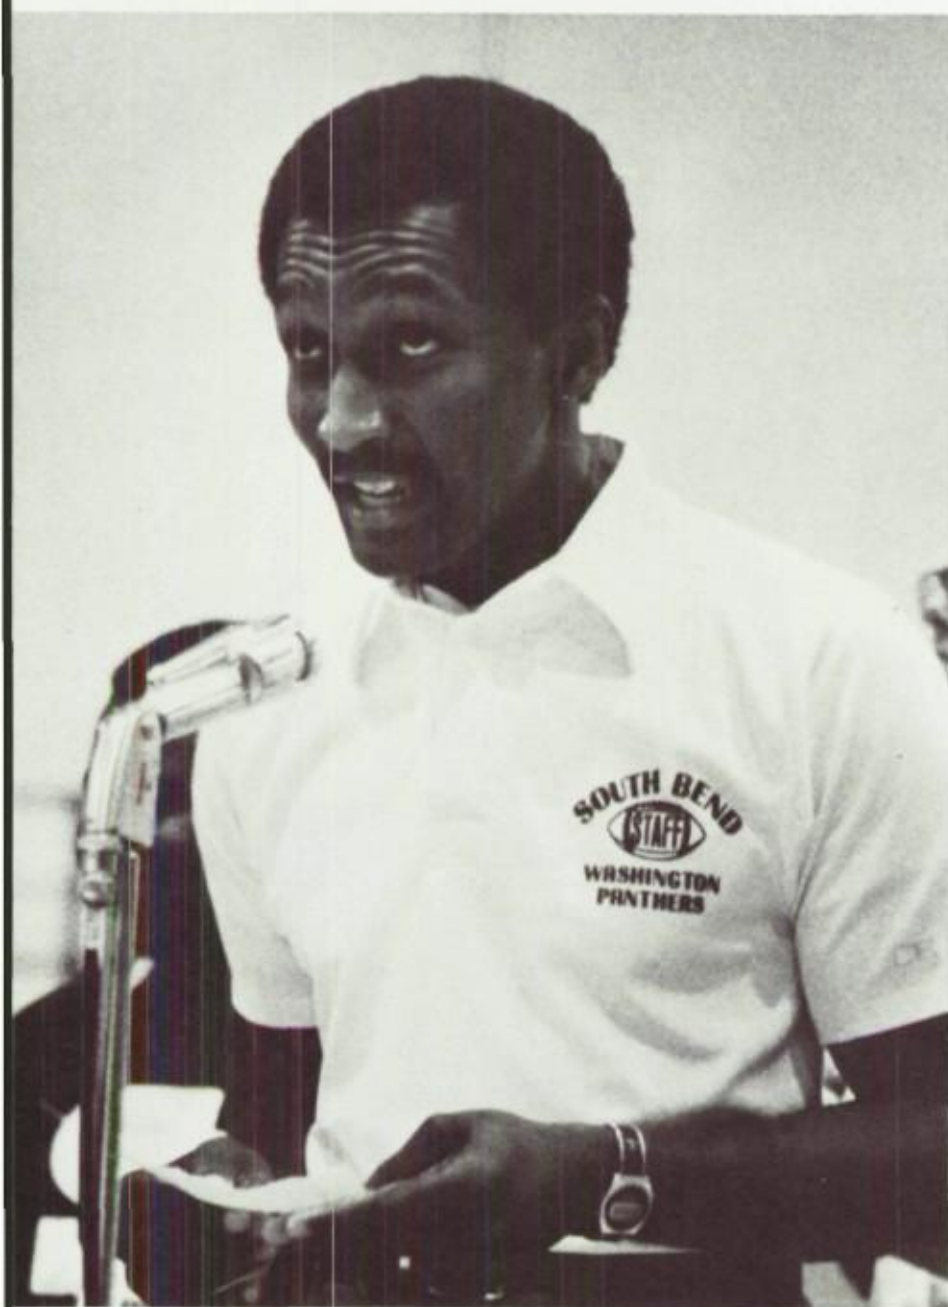

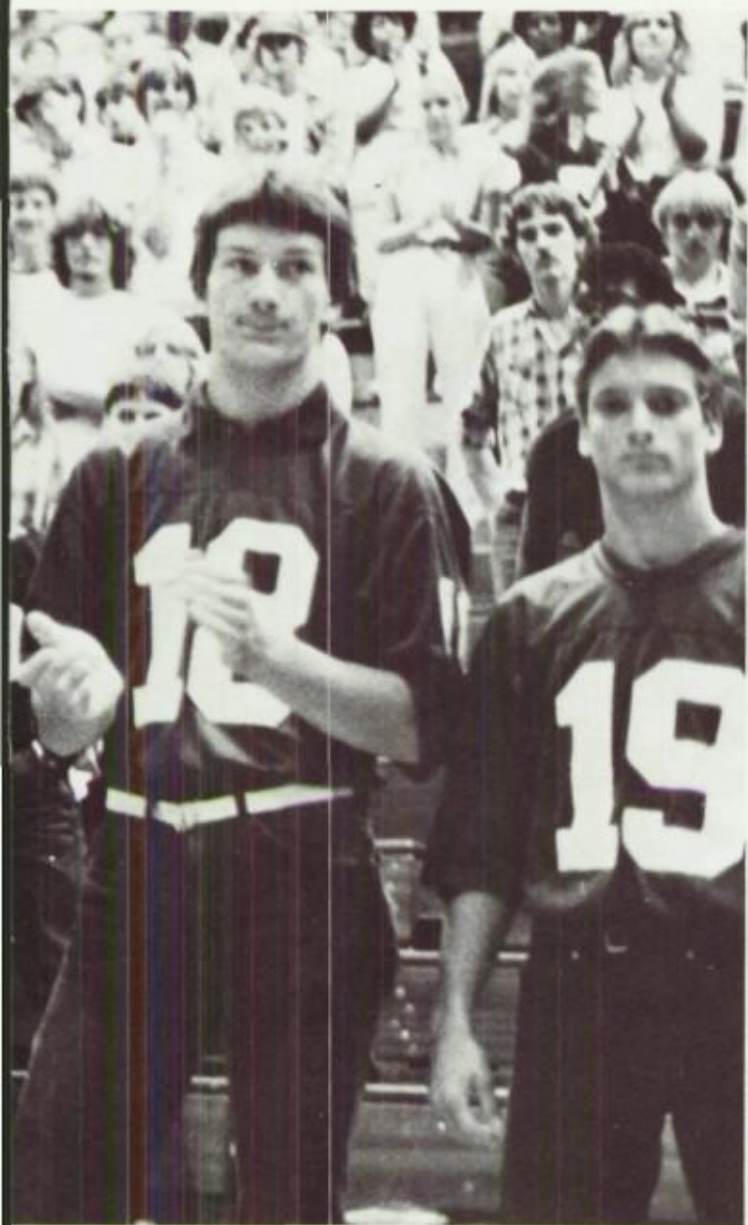

School spirit at W.H.S. was being expressed by almost everyone and not by just a handful of people.

Top: Larry Palmer, Greg Fozo, Mike Young, Brian Horvath, and Karl Jurek wear the Panther uniform with pride.

The Spirit Of W.H.S. Is The People

One of the most worthwhile things learned at W.H.S. was how to deal with all kinds of people. By working together, everyone strived to succeed under the same system.

Students realized that by working together things got done. If it was working on a school newspaper or trying to put a play together, the only way to get it done was by teamwork. Everyone had the same opportunity to get involved.

The people at W.H.S. made up the Washington spirit. It was not the building itself, but more importantly the people inside of the building that decided what the future held for W.H.S.

SPRING ACTIVITIES

Varsity Baseball

Goning into the Sectional, the Washington Varsity Baseball team was 16-12-1. By the end, they had beaten St. Joe, LaSalle, and Riley. In the Regionals the Panthers beat Mishawaka and Northwood to win the Regional Championship for the first time since 1974. The team then took a trip to the Semi-State. They played well, but made too many errors and lost the game to LaPorte. In that game, the team caught up and in the seventh inning, tied the score at 3-3, but in the bottom of the seventh, LaPorte was up at bat, and with two out, they scored on a controversial play when the ball went into the dug-out. Mr. Tomaszewski stated that he enjoyed having the honor of going to Semi-State and said, "Every coach or player should have the opportunity to at least go to the Semi-State to coach or play in it."

During the regular season, the team received a ninth ranking in the high school baseball poll. The Panthers were totally awesome at the beginning of the season with a 6-0 record, but they then went into a tailspin. They suffered one of the worst beatings that Mr. Tomaszewski experienced in a long time, getting beat by St. Joe 22-8. By the end of the season, the team was back on track, and outscored their opponents 25-3 in Sectional and Regional play.

Mr. Tomaszewski felt that the Seniors were not the most talented players, but they showed the leadership and support that a team needs. Award winners were: Tri-Captains — Kevin Rans, Kenny Soos, and John Holmes. Kiwanis Award winner was David Kaser. Highest batting average went to Kevin Meert with a .348 batting average, and M.V.P. was Kenny Soos. First Team All-Conference Awards went to Kevin Meert for D.H. and Jeff Turak for the outfield. Second Team All-Conference Awards went to Kenny Soos for Short Stop and John Holmes for catcher.

B-Team And Freshmen

The B-Team Baseball program coached by Larry Jackowiak, had an 11-9 record and a conference record of 9-9. The team had eleven sophomores, one freshman, and one junior who achieved an award at the end of the season. With the winning record posted by the team and with the many young men contributing to the program, next year should have some bright new faces in the varsity uniforms.

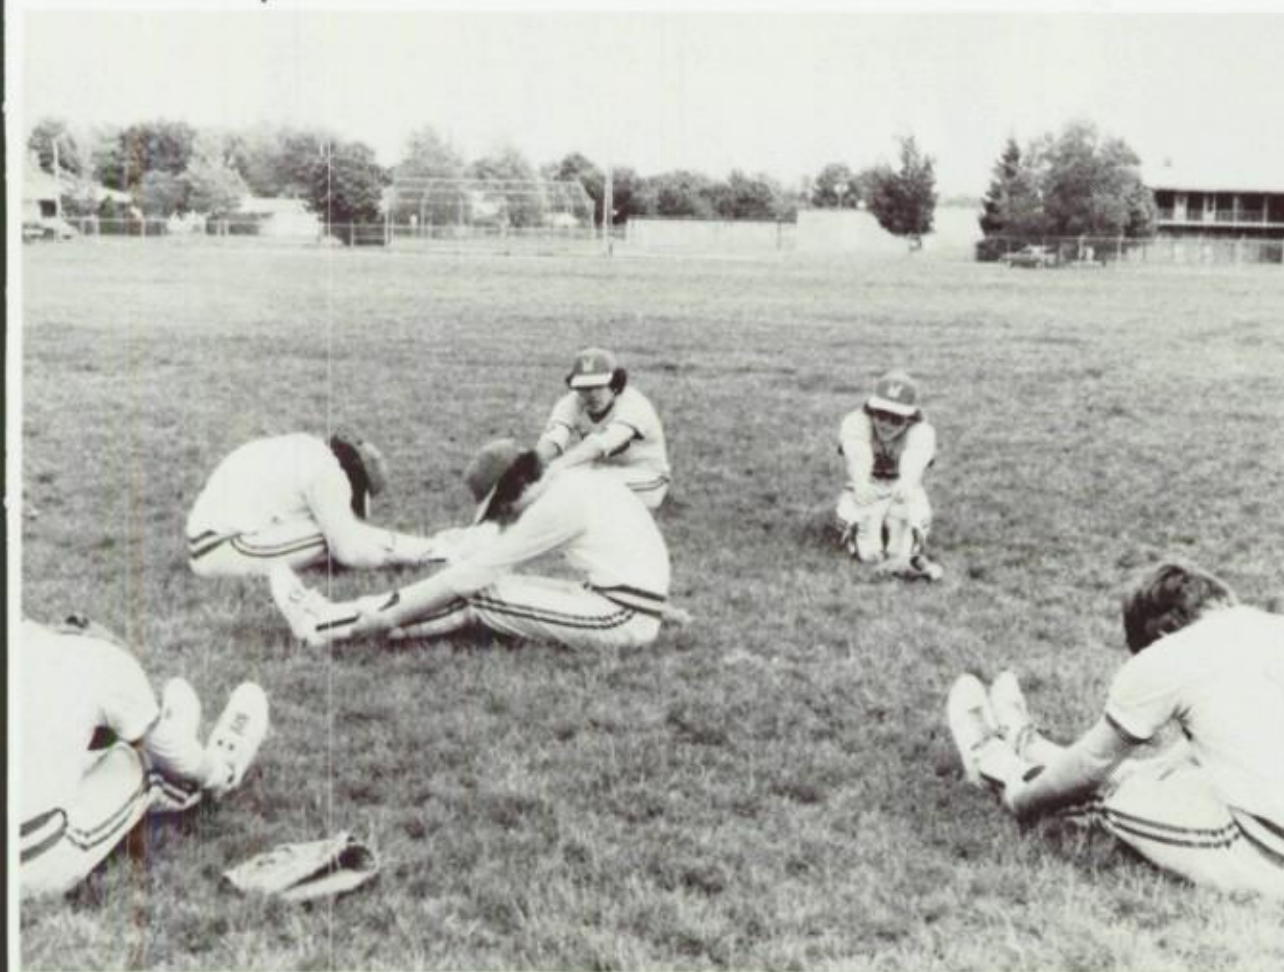

The Freshman Baseball team, coached by Bruce Urban, posted a 4-5 record for the season. The team suffered problems early in the Spring, but the team straightened out those problems and came back to have almost a winning season. The team showed a lot of character and should be proud of the job they did.

The 1982 Girls' Softball team, coached by Sue Edison and Roylene See, had a record of 4-8. This year's team showed a desire to play ball. Through all the games the girls fought to the final out was made. The fights proved to be beneficial since some of their games were won in the last inning.

The team was placed by three-year starters, Deb Caudill, Lyndelle Egyed, and Judy Jurgonski. Two-year starters Sally Milliken, Lori Rothballer, and Michelle VanWynsberghe helped contribute along with other outstanding players, such as, Pam Rzepnicki, Polly Szlanfucht, Tami McCammon, Wendy Engles, Tracy Gray, Katha Bucher, Jo Rodriquez, Chris Rzepnicki, Lori Colquitt, Sherri Bariewski, Shelley Tuttle, and Roberta Dodd. "The Man Who Came To Dinner"

Last Spring, the Drama Club put on the hilarious Comedy hit "The Man Who Came to Diner". The three act play took hours to produce. In the long run, it was worth it for Ron (Banjo) VanTornhaut and Tressie (Nurse) Johnson, but for old timers, Billy Scherpereel and Bonnie Bejma, it was sheer fun. The play concerned a famous director — writer — producer, Sheridan Whiteside, who slipped and cracked his hipbone on the Stanley's doorstep after having dinner with them. Sheridan and his secretary decided to live in the Stanley house and take it over. In the end, it all worked out. The play was another smash hit directed by Mr. Good.

As Friday night, May 21, roled around, many preparations had been made. This night was an unusual night for the W.H.S. Prom.

The theme of the prom was chosen. It was "We Got Tonight", and the colors were Royal Blue and Light Blue. The night began with a dinner at a choice restaurant and then to the prom. There, the couples enjoyed the music of S.S. XPRESS and had a great time socializing with their friends. About ten o'clock the court was announced, and the Queen and Princess were announced. The Princess was Michelle VanWynsberghe, and the Queen was Jenny Maenhout.

The evening passed, and each couple seemed to go their own way, taking with them the memories of the 1982 Junior-Senior Prom.

G r a d u a t i o n

On June 6, the Class of 82 received their diplomas for which they had waited many years. It seemed that at this point everybody should have been happy and excited that their high school years were done, but there were mixed emotions. Many wanted to feel happy and relieved, but it was hard because of the reflections on the good times had in the past. It seemed that children were no longer, but that young adults who would have to make decisions that would affect the rest of their lives, were blossoming. These decisions would be difficult but not impossible. It was time to put to use the skills and knowledge learned from twelve years of school, whether it is in college or in the business world.

1982 Soccer Team

The 1982 Soccer Team posted an 4-7 record. The team improved greatly this year and should be proud of their efforts. Mr. Foley was the coach and had some outstanding players for him. For example, Karl Jurek, Bill Zuber, Roger Moreno, Jeff Gleeson, Renee Stpczynski, Rudy Vega, and Vince Burkhart, just to name a few. M.V.P. Award went to Bill Zuber. The Sportsmanship Award went to Roger Moreno, and Kiwanis Award went to Renee Stypczynski.

SENIORS

The Class With Class Is Here At Last!!!

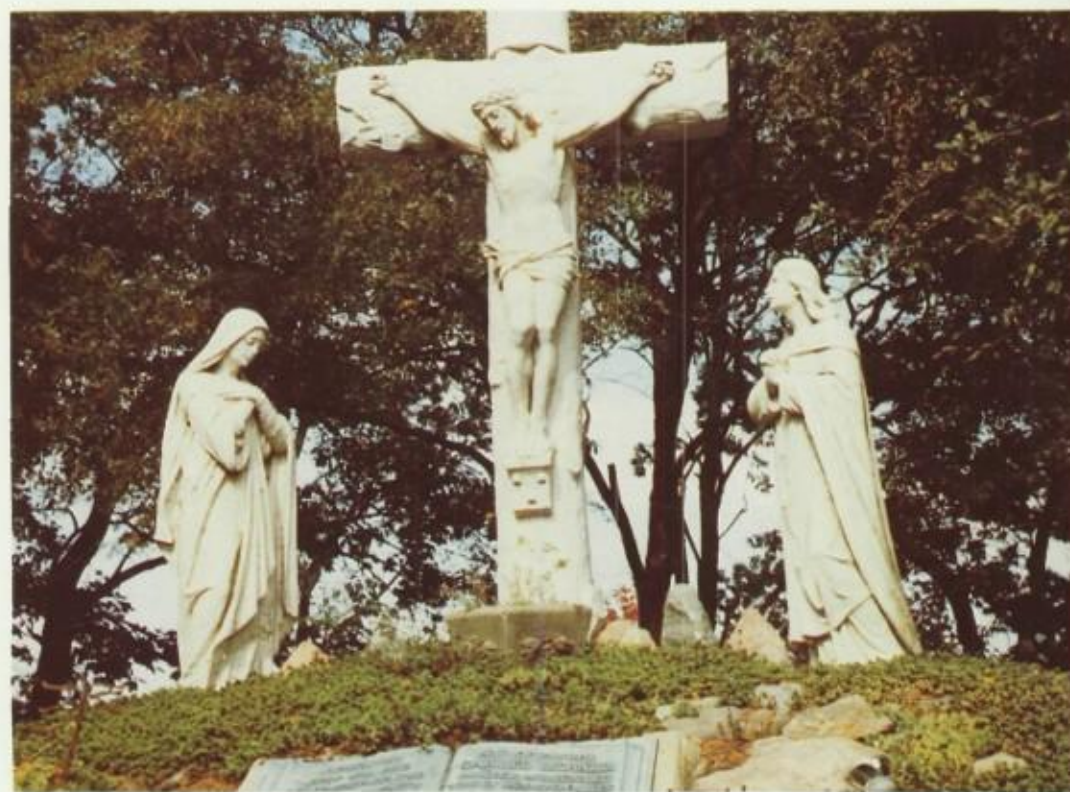

V-i-c-t-o-r-y That's

Our Senior Battle Cry

Four years ago, as the class of '83 entered Washington for the first time, the senior year seemed very far away. Freshmen began the process of working their way through crowded halls, searching above doors for the right room number, and meeting their new classmates, many of whom became good friends.

As the years went by, all of the high school activities that were so new and different for freshmen — pep assemblies, football games, homecoming, class parties, plays, proms — were enjoyed by many students and provided some great times. Passing drivers' ed. and getting a driver's license, buying a class ring, and getting through those final exams, all led up to that all-important senior year.

Suddenly, the fall of '82 was here, and the class found itself in the much-anticipated, prestigious role that once seemed so far away — seniors. The senior year brought on a rush of activities, like the paperwork of applying to college or for a job, and also added responsibilities as leaders of the student body. The class of '83 lived up to the challenge, carrying on the great tradition of Panther Pride, and left Washington in June with some well-earned diplomas and a host of memories from high school, some of "the best years of your life."

Olivier Marson was one of our foreign exchange students at Washington this year. He came from Nancy, Lorraine, in the northeastern part of France. He was hosted by the family of Jeff De Cocq.

Olivier has traveled through many parts of Europe, and though he sometimes missed his family and friends, he enjoyed his visit to America. He especially liked football, and attended many of the Washington football games this year. An athlete himself, he played for Washington in soccer, which is as popular in Europe as football is in America. He had very little difficulty in class or anywhere else due to his language proficiency, and he made many friends during his stay. The senior class wishes Olivier good luck in the future.

Gerardo Celaya

San Luis, Sonora, Mexico, was the home of senior foreign exchange student Gerardo Celaya. While in America, he stayed at the home of Joe Van-Overberghe's family.

Although Gerardo naturally missed his family and friends in Mexico, he said that he liked America because that the people he has met have been very friendly to him. A talented guitar player and singer, he took part in the fall Variety Show put on by the Drama Club. Language was not a problem for Gerardo, and he maintained good grades at Washington. We were glad to have him here, and wish him the best of luck for the future.

The Junior "Class of 84" with the help or their sponsors Mr. Sexton and Miss Soots have raised money by selling fruit for the Junior-Senior Prom in '83. They've come a long way to reach that goal.

By overcoming the obstacles society has given them, they have shown us that are the leaders of '84. They shall carry on the traditions of Washington High School and lead the classes of '85, '86, '87.

Sophomores The Class Of '85

The Sophomores with one year behind them, realized being "The Pride of The West Side" isn't as easy as they thought. With the everyday pressures of "trying to get to class on time" or getting the homework for the next day done, the Sophomores have it pretty well "under control." Along with the Juniors and Seniors, they must set good examples for upcoming freshmen. With all this in mind, the sophomores can look forward to their year '85.

Freshmen . . . The Class Of '86

The Freshmen, "starting anew" at Washington High School are wary of what's in store for them. Not knowing what to expect, the freshmen "creep" through the halls hoping they're going the right way. With three more years 'till '86 the Freshmen have a lot to learn and a lot of do's and don'ts! But with the guidance of the upperclassmen the next three years at Washington will be their best years ever.

Brazil Comes To WHS

He is sponsored by Harold Peterson. Back in Brazil school is more interesting to Ricardo because they have more subjects. He has gained many new friends here and has a new hobby, photography.

Ricardo has a small family back in Brazil, consisting of one older brother, Roberto and a younger sister, Renata, and of course his mother and father.

KEEP OLD FRIENDS

hold them fast!
These are treasures that will last.
Many new friends come and go . . .
pleasant . . . interesting to know
Yet they often melt like snow . . .*

*But the old friends who are staunch and strong
And comfort us
when things go wrong . . .
Theirs is love that lingers long . . .
With them is where our hearts belong.*

*Of all the blessings life could send
The best is knowing you're my friend.*

Let's Get Physical

Unforgettable, loyal, fiery, dedicated. That's Italian! That's Guy Campanello." "Campy" is retiring from Washington High school this year, and few will forget him. His dedication to Washington High School, the American Federation of Teachers, and yes, even the Chicago Cubs, is legendary. This unremitting handshaker and hallway observer will be hard to replace. We all wish him good luck and a happy, although it certainly won't be serene, retirement.

G. Campanello

As freshmen the fear and excitement took over and we found ourselves afraid of our own shadows. The elevator passes being sold, just to find WHS has only one floor. As sophomores we swore revenge on the unexpected freshmen who were going through the same fears we had. Football and basketball games were the highlights of our social life. We found new loves and new interests, and swore that the senior year was a century away and really didn't care.

Retirement has called our lunch-room Area Supervisor Mrs. Phyllis Combs. Hanging up her apron and chef's hat after 29 years will be difficult. Though she has never lived on the West Side, she certainly has become an active part of it. The move from the old school to our new present one brought hardships and joys for her. When she moved into our new kitchen, there were no drains, but the joys of the people coming and going all the time will remain. Mrs. Combs will miss each student but will leave with wonderful memories of each and every day at WHS. Saying farewell to her is like saying good-bye to an institution. Good Luck Mrs. Combs, and may God Bless You!!

Our junior year brought new awakenings to each and every one of us. Our first prom was coming up — the new clubs that were opened up to us. We also saw the closing of many fine schools as we strove toward integration. North Liberty brought a totally new look to WHS. These students have added to the heart of our school, and we thank them for their new and inventive ideas. The seniors look back on all of these fears, joys, and good times but also look ahead to a new life. It is with sad hearts that we draw a close to our high school career, but with refreshed and proud minds that we plan to keep the reputation of WHS in our hearts as we become an active and successful part of our society. OVER ONWARD!!!

Senior Members

The 1982-83 Pantherettes under the leadership of Pat Rozmarynowski and Bev McCammon added color and enthusiasm when they performed. During the summer, the sixteen Pantherettes attended summer camp and came back with a third place overall trophy and with numerous first and second place ribbons. Getting up at five o'clock was not one of their favorite duties, but the effort was well worth it.

This year's captains were Laurie Zmyslo and Karen Weinberg. They helped a great with their routines, such as Jump and Valley Girl.

Pantherettes

The 1982-83 B-Team Pantherettes showed us their versatility throughout our school year. This year's sponsor was Mrs. Karen Lane, who through long painstaking practices, produced one of the best overall groups around. They performed mostly at the B-Team Basketball games where they aroused the crowd with great enthusiasm.

September 19, will be remembered throughout W.H.S. as the 1982 Football Homecoming. It was the highlight of a rather unprepared-for spirit week which included Monday — dress-up day, Tuesday — Western day, Wednesday — 50's day, Thursday — T-shirt day, and Friday — traditional green-n-white day. Friday, we had a most exuberant pep assembly, topped off with the introduction of the court by Class Pres. Kathie Gorny and Lonnie Powell. The ten beautifully dressed girls and escorts patiently waited for the ceremonies to end so they could go to breakfast at Chauncey's.

That night, the Panther's plucked the Adam's Eagles with the score of 20 to 0. This year's Football Homecoming Queen was Dawn Brooks, and her escort was Jeffery "Fuddie" Lewis.

The Ushers Club was a service program sponsored by Mrs. Leatherman. It was composed of students willing to be of service to their school. This year the club welcomed parents, students, and faculty to the various school activities: the plays, choir performances and graduation. The students who participated in the club greeted the visitors with a friendly smile and a warm welcome they collected tickets and passed out programs.

W.H.S. Language Club has always been one of our largest organizations, and this year was no exception, with the membership well over fifty. The club was made up of French, Latin, and Spanish classes, but for the first time in many years, there were no German classes. At the beginning of the year nominations were held for the four offices. Julie Sheridan was elected President, Lisa Odusch, Vice-President, Billy Scherpereel, Secretary-Treasurer, and Joanne Morey, Program Chairmen. The annual Language Club Picnic was held at Bendix, and the fifth annual Chicken BBQ was a tremendous success. The Sponsor for the Language Club was Mr. Guin.

The 1982-83 Language.

The 1982-83 Drama Club had a triumphant year filled with a lot of professional ideas. Drama Director Joseph B. Good, in his fifteenth season, put on the Broadway hit Life with Father. Although it was made in three weeks and had endless mishaps, the November 18th and 19th shows were successful. This year's officers were Billy Scherpereel, President; Kathie Gorny, Vice-President; newcomer, David Whitesel, Treasurer; and, Rosa Aldarondo as Secretary. This year, Billy Scherpereel along with Kathie Gorny and Mr. Good, established a "Thespian Troupe," the first since 1969. These Thespians produced the Senior play. Drama Club also put on their annual Spring Musical. This year Annie Get Your Gun was selected. It was a spectacular end to a spectacular season. "Good job, J.B."

National Honor Society

Academically qualified juniors and seniors make up Washington High School's branch of the National Honor Society. This year, the club was led by its sponsor, Mr. Claus and its senior officers — Historian, Pam Page. Treasurer, Sue Szmanda, Secretary Lori Colquitt, Vice-President Rick Michalak, and President Chris Pecina. Each Spring students are asked to join the club by being invited to the annual Introduction Dinner. In order to be asked to join, a student must have a grade point average of three point two as a Junior and three point o as a senior, and display qualities such as "character, leadership, scholarship and service" In the eyes of the Washington Faculty, who nominate them. Club members participate in various sales and other fund raisers. When the year ends, all the work is finally done, members reward themselves by taking a spring trip, which is usually made to Cedar Point.

Senior members gather around Mrs. Moreno.

This was the first year at Washington that we actually had a Student Government. This year's Student Government consisted of thirty-six members, nine from each grade level, which helped with various school spirited activities such as the Christmas toy drive and the annual Senior blood drive. Mrs. Moreno was the sponsor.

The 1982/83 Memory Lane Yearbook Staff

Throughout the many years at W.H.S. the yearbook has been held as a book filled with memorabilia. This year's staff consisted of twenty-seven hard working, dedicated young people. Through the inspiritual guidance of our sponsor Mrs. Swintz and Editor-in-chief Michelle VanWynsberghe, this years Memory Lane was one of the best Washington has ever seen. Many staffers did their part in Mrs. Swintz's. first hour publications class and the others on their own free time. By the end of the year many of the staff were tired from carrying M & M boxes around to defray the cost of the yearbook. Despite the pressure and frustration most Memory Lane staff members enjoyed their work, especially when they saw the results.

If you ever wanted to know what was happening at good ole' Washington all you had to do was to wait for every Tuesday to roll around and you could pick up your Hatchet. The Hatchet, sponsored by Mrs. Fodor, was written by our own students. It kept us usually informed about all.

One of the most exciting and memorable times of each year is Homecoming. This year's Basketball Homecoming was no exception. With a perfectly planned Spirit week, The Homecoming game and the excitement of everything will be a fine memory for all.

Spirit week started out with Monday being Jersey and cap day, Tuesday — Punk day, Wednesday — Jogger's day, Thursday — dress up day, and Friday — traditional green and white day. As the Panthers' Superior team was sadly defeated by Elkhart Memorial 82-76, Angie Moreno was appropriately Queen.

Netters Face Difficulties

Tennis, as one of the most popular games in the world, is growing in popularity in South Bend high schools. That meant a lot of competition, and there was a lot of tough competition in the N.I.C. The Washington tennis team, coached by Ann Dodd, was a very young team. They represented Washington against many veteran teams and showed their pride and determination. Most of the team members will be back to strengthen next year's squad.

The Washington swim team had a lot of bright spots in a losing season. There were many individual and school records broken by Linda Laney (200 Free, 200 IM, and 500 Free), Leah Shetler (50 Free and 100 Free), and by the 400 Free Relay team of Linda Laney, Stephanie Vanslager, Jennifer Peczkowski, and Leah Shetler.

The team was composed mostly of seniors and the Panthers have a rebuilding job ahead of them, but with swimmers like Leah Shetler returning, the season should prove interesting.

The Washington Panther football team ended a very bright season with a 6-4 record, with two of those losses being by less than four points, combined. The Panthers had good senior leadership this year from the five captains; Robert Brumell, Dave Jozwiak, Milton Lee, Darryl McBride, and Brian Horvath.

The Panthers placed three people on first team All-Conference; Robert Brumell, Rich Mihalak and Brian Horvath. Brumell and Horvath also made All-State.

The Panthers lost seniors, but with talented underclassmen coming back, improvement is inevitable.

Cross Country Captures South Central Invt.

In many respects, the 1982 Cross Country season was the finest in recent Washington History. The Panther harriers accomplished several feats which had eluded previous teams. Among these gratifying performances were the team championship at the South Central Invitational, fourth place finish in the Sectional, and a surprising fifth place finish in the Regional meet.

The Panthers' success was especially sweet because the team lacked depth, was less experienced, and probably less talented than many teams it outperformed. The secret of this group's success was simply hard work, dedication, and perserverance. Each runner continued to improve throughout the season. They performed best when it counted most.

Outstanding senior leadership was provided by captains Brady Neilson and David Molnar. Brady established a school record by running 15:58 in the regional meet.

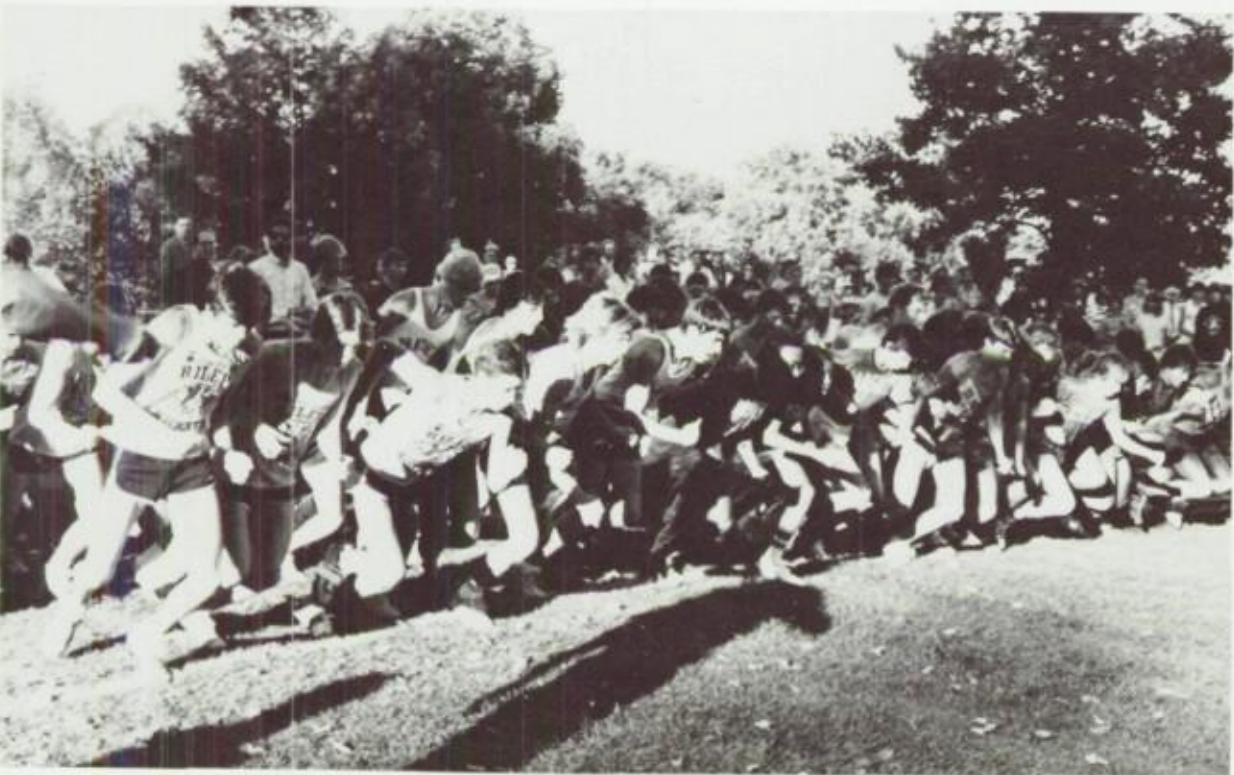

Coaches Welling and Alspaugh were extremely proud of the 1982 Cross Country team, both on the course and off. They represented Washington well. Congratulations!

The 1982-83 boys swim team, under supervision of second year coach Tom Johnson, has shown great effort and spirit at their meets. But lack of participation has had a great effect on the outcome of the meets. Even though they were off to a disappointing start, they showed improvement as the season went on. They had some impressive performances by seniors Tom Laney, Mark Phillipi, and some good outings by Tony Lentch, and eager to improve, Mike Young and Jim Latson. Hard work, two practices a day, and time consuming hours have satisfied individual performances.

Spikers Show Enthusiasm To Win

The 1982 volleyball team deserved much credit for their vehement efforts demonstrated on the court. Hard work and much enthusiasm stirred the production of a tough ball club. The Panthers learned the value of teamwork and spirit through the dedicated coaching of Miss Shively.

The returning seniors, captain Lori Rothballer, Shelly Szalewski, Chris Pecina, and Pat Vanslager, led the varsity team to a 7-6 winning season. The season did not end spectacularly as the girls desired, but the victory of gaining teamwork and spirit made the season valuable.

The varsity club entered the South Bend sectionals conquering a prepared Clay club. But in the semi-final match against a troublesome Adams team, the Panthers fought vigorously to a defeated end. This match finished a difficult season but marked the beginning of fond memories of the experiences gained this year.

The B-team Panthers also fought a tough season ending in a 6-7 record. Headed by captain Sue Lutomski the team cooperated and worked hard throughout the season. These girls profited this season by attaining experience for the upcoming year which should prove to be productive. Good Luck, Panthers!

The 1982-83 Girls Basketball Team, coached by Jo Masey, proved to be the starting blocks of what could be the start of a good Girls Basketball program. This year, the girls showed great improvement and showed teams around the city that they came to play basketball. Lead by Seniors; Tressy Johnson, Kim Kilgore, Faye Rodgers, Kim Miller, Bonnie Bejma, and Michelle VanWynsberghe, and Juniors: Gwen Bradford and Michele Bonek, the team fought to the end.

With great performances by Gwen Bradford and Tressy Johnson, good court leadership by Bonnie Bejma, and the outstanding play of the rest of the team, they might not of been winners in the win-loss bracket, but they were in the character in which they played.

Panthers Take Holiday Tournament

Washington High School won its first Holiday Tournament ever in seventeen tries. The Panthers, coached by John Solmos, won the tournament by defeating always tough Riley and then by squeaking by St. Joe in the final round. The 1983 team was led by six excellent seniors, Dave Johnson, Brian Horvath, Anton Brevard, Rich Mihalak, Greg Fozo, and Billy Adams. These seniors showed great leadership ability and made the panther team a hard one to beat.

The theme for the 1983 Memory Lane was "Stand Up and Take Notice." After many ideas and good possibilities this theme was chosen for a couple of important reasons. First of all, the area parents, administrators, and alma mater of Washington High School felt that the student body at W.H.S. and the Pride of the Westside were not like before, but it was time for these people to "Stand Up and Take Notice" that the pride and spirit of W.H.S. was back. Second of all, the theme was picked because of the student body. The students began to show to everyone around the city that W.H.S. was alive and well on the Westside. Whether at pep assemblies or in the stands, spirit was being shown, and the pride of the school was once again back in the hearts of its occupants. It is time for everyone around to "Stand Up and Take Notice" of the Pride of W.H.S.

As Editor-in-Chief of the 1983 Memory Lane, I would like to thank the many members who gave their complete time and devotion into making this our best yearbook. Whether it was working late into the night or budgeting their schedules to meet deadlines, everyone worked together.

In addition, a special thanks and a warm handshake goes to Mrs. Swintz, our adviser. Thanks for the many extra hours put into meeting deadlines and for being there when any problems arose. Also a big thank you goes to Mr. Jim Beckham, American Yearbook Representative, who put in his share of time, whether it was working late on Senior color layouts or making that special trip into school to check up on everything. Every member of the staff should feel proud of the 1983 yearbook and thanks again for making the 1983 Memory Lane possible.

By looking through the book and by reading it, we hope you can pick out the great memories of your high school days and be able to treasure them for the rest of your life. If it might only be one great or special memory, we hope the 1983 Memory Lane will be there whenever you need to take that look back — five, ten, or twenty years from now.
